As part of our services, we offer resume preparation, personalized job discovery, marketing strategy development, development of search tools, preparation for interviews, debriefing after interviews, networking, and assistance with negotiation of job offers and support as you transition to your new job.

"The gracious support and professionalism I found with PeopleFirst will be forever engrained in my mind and I continue to recommend them to others who find themselves in the same situation. Who knows where I'd be without them today and I thank them for their understanding, time, and courtesy during a point in my life when I needed it most."
